Valle del Sol inspires positive change by investing in health and human services to strengthen families with tools and skills for self-sufficiency and by building the next generation of Latino and diverse leaders.

Adult Services

Adults at every stage can be faced with many stressful conditions, such as family violence or divorce, troubled relationships, anger, depression and other emotional issues, drug and alcohol use, involvement with the legal system, or challenges associated with poverty.

Children & Family Services

Young people and families are faced with many stressful conditions, such as trouble in school, family violence or divorce, troubled relationships, anger, depression and other emotional issues, drug and alcohol use, involvement with the legal system, or challenges associated with poverty.

About Us

Valle del Sol is a nonprofit organization with a history of caring for the community by helping men, women, children, families and the elderly each year through healthcare, human service, and leadership development programs.
