

NEW LIFE

“New life does not always look perfect or spiffy; it is often messy. New looks like recovering alcoholics. New looks like reconciliation between family members who don't actually deserve it. New is everytime I manage to admit I was wrong and manage to not mention when I am right. New looks like every fresh start, and every act of forgiveness and every moment of letting go of what we thought we couldn't live without and somehow living without it anyway. New is the thing we never saw coming & never even hoped for but ends up being what we needed all along.”
